GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

A talk with Mr. J. Walter Spalding on baseball matters is always interesting and instructive. He has been identified with the national game for many years, and delights to talk about it. He arrived in the city from New York yesterday and left for Chicago last evening. During a conversa-tion he expressed himself plainly regarding the American Association and the graded salary rule. He said: "It seems to me that the Association authorities are not very clear as to what course they to challenge the champion. will take in the matter, I saw Mr. Byrne, of the Brooklyn club, a few days ago, and he intimated that the Association may not adopt any salary rule this season. The reason of this, he says, is because almost all the players have been signed or promises made to them.

HE LIKES THE SCHEME. "Mr. Byrne, however, assured me that the more he thinks of the League salary rule the more does he like it. Of course, Mr. Byrne believes that the League rule can be improved. I do not anticipate any trouble by the Associa-tion postponing its action on the salary question. Rule or no rule, the Association must reduce its salaries. There are only two clubs in the organization that can maintain the high salaries. These clubs are Brooklyn and Cincinnati. With this fact in view it is easy to see that as a means of self-preservation the Association will be compelled to reduce salaries so that the League's new rule will, in a sense, be in operation in the Association also. The fact is players who are continually demanding high salaries are really injuring the game and themselves. All there is in it is that clubs will disband sooner than pay exorbitant salaries. There are more players in the market now than there ever was. Of course we sometimes are unable to get the man we want, but there is plenty of choice. There is a difference between now and 14 or 15 verys are. I remember on one now and 14 or 15 years ago. I remember on one occasion on which we, the Chicago Club, were traveling with nine men, one of them took sick and we couldn't secure a man to fill his place. We could get a hundred men now almost at any boint."

ABOUT THE AUSTRALIAN TRIP. Speaking of the Australian trip, Mr. Spalding said: "It has so far been a gigantic success-in fact more so than we anticipated. I had a cablegram from my brother two days ago, and he states definitely that the clubs will play at Bombay, Delhi and one or two other Indian cities. The clubs will then go to Egypt and also one or two games under the shadow of the pyramids. The latter will be the grand stand. pyramids. The latter will be the grand stand. One or two games will also be played at Rome, and we will invite the Pope to favor our players with his presence. We will play at Brussels, Paris and various English, Irish and Scotch

"I am confident that the effect of the trip will be good as far as baseball is concerned. It will popularize the game in this country, because the way in which foreign potentates and rulers have patronized the games will arouse interest and curiosity here. I am convinced that the time will come when we will play any analysis of the interesting of the property is, English or other European clubs will play against Americans. Cricket playing in En-gland is not so popular with the masses as it used to be: at least, there is not that public enthusiasm about it as formerly. The game is too long and wearisome for modern times. It is different with baseball, and as soon as any body becomes in the least interested in it, they begin to develop into enthusiasts. Most as-suredly our national game will become popular in other countries."

WEST BRIDGEWATER, PA., January 9, 1889. Sporting Editor of the Dispatch: I notice in your paper of the 8th, that some of your horsemen of Pittsburg and Allegheny propose to make a 2 year-old trot for July, 1889, with Euclid, Holstein and Oberlin, colts, and to-day I see that Mr. Simcox, of McKeesport, comes to the front with his colt Dunbar Wilkes. I will ask you to say through your columns that I have a black filly, Lulu Hontas, by Harry Hontas, 6,407, that will not be 2 years old until August 5, 1889. I will enter her in the proposed stake race for from $100 to $200 a corner, the winner to take all. To show that I mean business, I will deposit $100 with the Sporting Editor of The Disparen. Hoping to hear sething definite regarding the proposed race Yours truly, M. E. GALLAGHER, P. S.—The race can be trotted on any American track, one mile heats, best two in three.

WHAT DEMPSEY SAYS.

The Nonparell Thinks That Sullivan and Kilrain Are Well Matched.

BALTIMORE, January 9 .- Jack Dempsey, the middleweight pugilist, who is sparring here with Denny Costigan, was asked his opinion of the result of the Kiirain-Sullivan fight. "That is a hard question," said Dempsey. "Such a fight would be a great one. Two mea could not be more evenly matched and yet use different tactics. Both are born fighters, clever sparrers and perfectly familiar with both the Marquis of Queensberry and London prize ring reles. I like Kiiran, both for his pugilistic abilities and as a friend. He should make a great showing with the big feller. Sullivan, on the other hand, has been taking exceptionally good care of himself since his recent ness, and should your Baltimore man meet him in a few months, he will find Sullivan a formid

THEIR ANNUAL MEETING.

The Herron Hill Gue Club Members Elect Their Officers.

The annual meeting of the Herron Hill Gun Club was held last night at the gun store of W. H. Bown, Smithfield street. There was a good attendance of members. The reports read were highly satisfactory, and showed that the club has almost reached its membership limit. It is chartered for 75 members, and that num-

Interesting Match.

Amid yesterday's storm the Herron Hill Gun Club had a lively shooting contest on the club grounds. The contest was a sweepstake of $5 each at 100 clay pigeons. There were 11 burg. entries. The wind was so strong, however, that g ood shooting was an impossibility. Following were the results: A. C. Kruger, 77, first; E. E. Shaner, 72, second; Charles Richardson, 8, and Q. A. McClure, 88, divided third money; F. F. Davidson, 67, fourth. The non-winners were: W. J. McCrickert, 63; G. S. Henderson, 58; J. O. H. Denny, 47; C. M. Clarke, 47; W. H. Brown, 56.

The Champion Bun Eater.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, January 9,-William Lichtenberger, who styles himself the champion bun eater of America, has sent the following challenge to Richard K. Fox for publication:
BUFFALO, N. Y., January 8.—I. William Lichtenberger, the champion bun eater of America, do bereby challenge John C. Stanb to eat buns for a stake of from $100 to $200 a side.

WILLIAM LICHTENBERGER.

KILRAIN'S COMPLAINTS.

es That His Fight With Sullivan May Not Take Place. Regarding the arrangements for the propose battle for the championship, Kilrain says:

"My friends had to give way in everything to bring Sullivan to terms. The baby is trying even now to crawl out of the fight. I don't believe in putting it off for six months. We may both be dead by that time. Then the may both be dead by that time. Then the Sullivan party proposes to choose a referee at the ringside when we are ready to fight. That is the silliest and most contemptible way anyone could suggest—to get a Sullivan to referee the fight or to cause a squabble at the last moment that would postpone it. I can't say that I will fight under the present arrangements. Sullivan is a baby. He wants everything his own way, and when he can't have it, he accuses someone else of hindering the arrangement. I want to fight, but I don't want him to be suited in everything and not be consulted at all myself. That isn't fair. I shall see my friends as soon as I reach New York, and then we will see what can be done."

WILL ROW O'CONNOR.

Jake Gaudaur Anxious to Row the Spec Canadian. Patrons of aquatics will be somewhat prised to learn that Jake Gaudaur has c nged William O'Connor to a boat race for rican championship. Gaudaur says will row the Canadian a three-mile race, wit ture, for $1,000 a side at New Orleans, Galv ton or San Francisco on or about March Southern waters are named because O'Con intends to go to Australia.

O'Connor, however, intends to start for St.

THE New York club has not as yet selected new grounds. John R. Day, the President of the club, and James J. Coogan, the recent Labor candidate for Mayor, had a long conversation yesterday about new grounds for the Giants. Mr. Coogan represents the Lynch estate, which includes much of the property in the neighborhood of One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, on the Westside. No agreement was entered into.

FOR PUBLIC PRINTER.

A Largely Signed Petition in Favor of a Well-Known Pittsburger. tion is being widely circula signed to secure the office of Public Printer for a well-known Pittsburger, now in the em-ploy of Murdock, Kerr & Co. Following is the

To the President, Executive Mansion, Washington. D. C.: SIR-Your petitioners, whose signatures are hereto attached, respectfully ask the appointment of Thomas J. McKalip, of Pittsburg, Pa., to the effice of Public Printer.

We are personaled that Mr. McKallp is peculiarly well qualified for the efficient, careful and economical conduct of the office. He has a thorough practical knowledge of the printing business, which has been acquired through an experience covering many years, and, as manager of a large printing house for seven years, has given proof of the possession of a high order of administrative and executive ability. His patriotism was fully attested by onlistment in the army when a mere youth, (in feler's Battery, Light Artillery), and service Tyler's Battery, Light Artillery), and service therein as a private until honorably discharged. His loyalty to the Republican party has been steadfast. His personal character and reputation are such as to command the unlimited confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. In view of these facts, we cordially and earnestly commend Mr. McKalip to your favorable consideration for the office of Public Printer.

THEIR BABY LEFT BEHIND. Boarders Disappear, Abandoning an Infant

and Forgetting a Bill. Yesterday afternoon an old lady named Mrs. Mast, whose son is a Grant street barber, came to Inspector McAleese's office and asked to have Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luther arrested. According to her statement these parties had been boarding with her, but went away yesterday leaving a two-weeks'-old baby and a board bill and taking along Mrs. Mast's black cashmere dress, which had been loaned to Mrs. Luther because her own garments were Mrs. Mast believed that the Luthers had planned to go out of the city by rail. The po-lice are looking for them, and Agent Dean, of the Anti-Cruelty Society, has been notified to take charge of the infant.

AN OUTSIDE FATAL ACCIDENT. Young George Heckman Squeezed to Death

by an Elevator. George Heekman, a young boy employed in Kuable & Shuster's store, Fifth avenue, as a wrapper clerk, was caught by the elevator yesterday and squeezed to death.

The elevator boy and Heckman's brother were riding up and down for pleasure early in the merning. George Heckman playfully jumped on top of the elevator, and was caught by the transom and killed.

HIS ALLEGED WIFE HELD.

Carrie Davis, Alias Palmer, Committed for the Murder of Albert Davis.

At the Coroner's jury sitting on the body of Albert Davis, who was shot Monday night, evidence was adduced that caused i verdict to be rendered that the deceased's death-wound was caused by a pistol-wound in the hands of Carrie Palmer, alias Davis. The woman was committed to court to await trial for murder.
